Starting to Look Like Home

By Lisa Aug, CFC Communications

We're not quite there yet, but with the opening of 4C in the CHR building, you can easily imagine how the whole 4th Floor is going to look finished in just a few more weeks.

The last partitions have been removed from CFC staff on the 5th Floor in preparation for General Accounting and Assets Management moving to their permanent office on 4. OTS staff have also moved to their permanent offices on the parking lot side of the Secretary's pod.

If you know you will be out of the office on the day you are scheduled to move, and you are moving your existing furniture rather than moving into a modular office, please help the movers to avoid having to move your furniture twice. On a plain piece of 8-1/2 x 11 paper, draw a square to represent your office, identify the door, then draw marked squares and circles to show how you want your furniture arranged.

Activities Raise Almost $1,000 for KECC Charities

By Anya Armes Weber, CFC Communications

The KECC Kickoff on Tuesday, Oct. 17, raised more than $300 for the campaign's six charities.

"We raised $321 just from the games and sales," KECC Coordinator Bonnie Cox said. "We also get a portion of the money from the lunch sales in the cafeteria."

Kickoff participants played dart- and basketball-throwing games, walked for cakes and bought T-shirts and cookbooks. The main attraction was the pie toss outside, where $2 bought the chance to cream Eric Barnes, Barry Ellis, Mike Jennings, Mark Rosen and Albert Woodrum. "The pie toss always goes over big," Cox said. "People love to hit somebody else in the face with a pie."

Ronnie Dunn gives Mark Rosen a pie in the face!

While staff lunched on corn dogs, hot dogs, chips, cole slaw, mini funnel cakes and caramel apples, T. J. Bing sang for them.

The Franklin County Humane Society had an adoption table (below) at the kickoff, and one puppy found a new home that day. The society will draw the winner of its Beanie Baby Basket raffle the week before Christmas.

Door prize winners are as follows:

Dawn Pulliam – Great American Cookbook

Joyce Cammack – Vibrating back massager

Jean Herrell – Pumpkin candy holder

Carolyn Thomas – Pear centerpiece

Jackie Wells – T-shirt

Angela Hall, Fran Sanders and Martha Graves – KECC Cookbook

Congratulations to all winners!

Cox said she'd like to thank the volunteers, donors and players who helped make the kickoff a success.

Garage sale nets $625

CFC's Office of the Ombudsman raised $625 for KECC during its two-day garage sale in the CHR lobby.

"We've already had people promise to bring us several items next year after they move into new homes they are building," said Rodney Moore, who works in the Ombudsman's office.

The ombudsman's office staff thanks everyone who donated and participated to help KECC.

Second chance to help

If you were unable to visit the kickoff or the rummage sale, you can still help KECC.

Pumpkin Mania, a pumpkin-decorating contest, is the week of Oct. 23. Offices can take their entries to the cafeteria, where staff can pay 25 cents a vote to pick the best-looking pumpkin.

A haunted house will be open Oct. 30-31 in the First City Complex. Plan to wear your costume on Halloween.

The Follies are Nov. 2, and whether you sing, dance, tell jokes or play an instrument, there's room for your act. Tell your friends and family they're eligible too.

Turn in your KECC pledge cards by Nov. 1.

If you need an extra pledge form or would like to perform at the Follies, call KECC Coordinator Bonnie Cox at (502) 564-5028 or e-mail Bcox@mail.state.ky.us.
